

TRANSITION PENWITH

Programme of Events April to June 2007.

Wednesday, April 25th. Union Hotel, Chapel St., Penzance 7.30pm. Cost £3.

Impact of Peak Oil on Health & Medicine

A talk by Dr. Pamela Gray, well-respected holistic scientist, theoretical physicist, author and researcher in the field of integrative medicine.

Wednesday, May 9th. Queens Hotel, Promenade, Penzance 7.30pm. Cost £3.

Transition Penwith in association with Penwith Film Society

A Crude Awakening – The Oil Crash

Premiere of award-winning new film, followed by a discussion with an invited panel.

Saturday, May 12th, Newlyn Community Centre, Chywoone Hill, Newlyn 10am to 4pm Transition Penwith - Open Space. Free. All welcome.

Exploring the question: How To Create a Vibrant, Resilient & Sustainable Penwith?

'The Great Reskilling – A Toolkit Of Hands-On-Workshops.'

Saturday April 21st. 10am to 5pm. Chy Ena, Sancreed.

Treebogs - Composting Toilets Workshop

with David Smartknight and Mat Kraft. Donations.

Saturday May 5th and Sunday May 6th. 10am to 5pm. Chy Ena, Sancreed.

Wetland Reed Bed Ecosystem Treatment

with permaculture designer and microbiologist, Jay Abrahams.

Cost: £20 (concessions available).

To register for the above courses, contact Rachel Smartknight,

Tel: 01736 810660 or email: reskilling@transitionpenwith.com

More reskilling workshops will be offered over the next few months.

For details please contact Jennifer Gray,

Tel: 07734 692435 or email: peak.oil@virgin.net or visit www.transitionpenwith.com.

Tuesday, June 12th. Queens Hotel, Promenade, Penzance 7.30pm. Cost £3.

Food & Farming in Transition

A talk by Patrick Holden, Director of the Soil Association and leading voice on the impact of peak oil on food and farming.

Saturday, June 16th Queens Hotel, Promenade, Penzance 10am to 4pm

Food & Agriculture Open Space Day. Free. All welcome.

Exploring the question: How Will Penwith Feed Itself Beyond the End of Cheap Oil?

Thursday, 28th June. Union Hotel, Chapel St, Penzance 7.30pm. Cost £3.

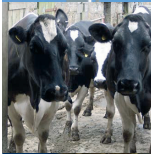

The Power of Community: How Cuba Survived Peak Oil

Back by popular demand! This empowering film looks at how Cuba responded to the collapse of the Soviet Union and to the overnight disappearance of its oil imports.

50-minute film followed by a discussion.

TRANSITION
PENWITH

For more details visit www.transitionpenwith.com